

The Healing Power of Story

Change can come through re-imagining the past, claiming power over the stories we tell ourselves and inventing new ways of seeing these stories and ourselves.

All workshops are from 10am – 3.30pm

Gold Coast | Thursday 1 October 2020

Gympie | Monday 12 October 2020

Brisbane | Tuesday 13 October 2020

Venues to be confirmed

During this one day workshop you will:

- learn ways to write about your life
- use imagination, magic and fairy tales to rewrite the past and imagine a better future.

Come along and join the fun, write up a storm! No reading and writing skills required. Supporters will be available to assist with scribing and literacy.

Free to attend with lunch provided.

Please rsvp to:

lotus@micahprojects.org.au

For more information about this workshop please contact Lotus Place on 3347 8500.

The workshop presenter Edwina Shaw is a skilled facilitator who nurtures participants and creates a safe and welcoming environment for people to explore their creativity, relax and write. Her approach is tailored to suit participants specific needs.

Edwina has been running creative writing workshops for Lotus Place participants in Brisbane for several years and is passionate about the healing power of story. She also teaches creative writing and runs creative writing retreats.

Edwina is a Brisbane writer of fiction, memoir and screenplays. She is a published author and holds a Masters degree in Creative Writing.

The workshop is funded by the Truth, Healing and Reconciliation Taskforce and Micah Projects.